

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Revision Date:
04/20/2018

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact the Privacy Officer at 541-492-0129.

YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION. We create and maintain electronic medical records for each of our patients. Our office also participates in an electronic health records exchange with area health care providers. This secure, electronic exchange enables each provider you see who participates in the exchange to access and update your health records. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care maintained by this office, and to our employees and healthcare professionals entering information in your record. Other physicians or health care providers that you use may have different policies or notices regarding the use and disclosure of your medical information; however, all providers participating in the secure network have agreed to adopt policies and notices similar to this one. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information. This notice describes the information privacy practices followed by SouthRiver employees, staff, and other office personnel. We are required by law to (1) protect the privacy of your health information; (2) give you this notice describing how we may use and share your health information; and (3) follow the terms of this notice.

HOW WE MAY USE AND SHARE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU. We may use or share your health information without your permission for the following reasons.

- Treatment. We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may share medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, office staff or other medical personnel who are involved in your care. As noted above, in an effort to provide you with the highest quality of coordinated care, we will place your records on a secure, electronic network that enables other participating providers you see to access and update your health records.
- Payment. We may use and share medical information about you as reasonably necessary in billing and collecting from you, an insurance company or a responsible third party.
- Health Care Operations. We may use and share medical information about you as reasonably necessary to run the office and make sure our patients receive quality care.
- Appointment Reminders. We may contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment.
- Treatment Alternatives. We may tell you about treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.
- Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.
- Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may share medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care. We may also give information to someone who helps pay for your care. We may also tell your family or friends your condition and that you are in a hospital. In addition, we may share medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.
- Research. Under certain circumstances, we may use and share medical information about you for research purposes.
- As Required By Law. We will share medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.
- To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and share medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threatened harm.
- Health Information Exchange. SouthRiver participated in multiple internet-based health information exchanges. As permitted by law, your health information will be shared with this exchange in order to provide faster access, better coordination of care and assist providers and public health officials in making more informed decisions. You may opt out and prevent searching of your health information available through the health information exchange by completing and submitting an Opt-Out form to SouthRiver Community Health Center.
- Breach Notification Purposes. If for any reason there is an unsecured breach of your medical information, we will utilize the contact information you have provided us with to notify you of the breach, as required by law. In addition, your information may be disclosed as a part of the breach notification and reporting process.

- Business Associates. We may disclose your Protected Health Information to our business associates who provide us with services necessary to operate and function as a medical practice. We will only provide the minimum information necessary for the associate(s) to perform their functions as it relates to our business operations. For example, we may use a separate company to process our billing or transcription services that require access to a limited amount of your health information. Please know and understand that all of our business associates are obligated to comply with the same HIPAA privacy and security rules in which we are obligated. Additionally, all of our business associates are under contract with us and committed to protect the privacy and security of your Protected Health Information.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS.

- Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may share medical information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.
- Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, we may share medical information about you as required by military command authorities. We may also share medical information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority.
- Employment. We may share medical information about you with employers, insurers, and others to comply with laws related to workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.
- Public Health. We may share medical information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the prevention or control disease, injury or disability; reporting of births and deaths, child abuse or neglect, reactions to medications or problems with products; and notification of people of recalls of products they may be using, a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition, the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only make the last disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.
- Health Oversight. We may share medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law.
- Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may share medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also share medical information about you in response to a subpoena.
- Law Enforcement. We may share medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official (1) in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process; (2) about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct; (3) about criminal conduct at the office; or (4) in emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.
- Death. We may share medical information to a coroner, funeral director, or medical examiner when an individual dies
- Special Circumstances. We may share medical information about you to specific government officials for authorized for functions such as national security, military activities, the operation of correctional facilities, and government benefit programs.
- Inmates. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may share medical information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This share would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide you with health care; (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

OTHER USES and SHARING OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION.

- Psychotherapy Notes. In most cases, we may not share your psychotherapy notes without your written permission.
- Sale of Health Information. We will not sell your health information. Any sale of your health information requires your written permission.
- Marketing. We will not use or share your health information for marketing purposes. You must give us written consent to do so.
- Other uses and disclosures of medical information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or share medical information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or share medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU. You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

- Right to Inspect and Copy. With limited exceptions, you have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. You must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. We will select a licensed health care professional to review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

- Right to Amend. If you feel that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for this office.

To request an amendment, complete and submit an AMENDMENT REQUEST form to the Privacy Officer.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that was not (1) created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment; (2) is not part of the medical information kept by or for the office; (3) is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or (4) is accurate and complete.

- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures." This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you.

To request this list or accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper, electronically). The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at the time before any costs are incurred.

- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or share about you for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we share about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, like a family member or friend.

We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

To request restrictions, you may complete and submit the REQUEST FOR LIMITATION AND RESTRICTION OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION form to the Privacy Officer. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

- Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location.

To request confidential communications, you may complete and submit the PATIENT'S REQUEST TO LIMIT CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS to the Privacy Officer. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

- Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact the Privacy Officer.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE. We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for medical information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. We will post a summary of the current notice in the office. The summary will contain, in the top right-hand corner the effective date. You are entitled to a copy of the current notice in effect.

COMPLAINTS.

You will not be penalized or retaliated against for filing a complaint. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with SouthRiver by contacting the Privacy Officer. You may also file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
